YOUR HOME

Do you live in a house, apartment or other?

If you rent, do you have written permission from the landlord to have a greyhound or a large dog?

Do you agree to keep your greyhound in the house as a family member and not outside?

Do you have a securely fenced garden with a fence in good repair with secure gates? Hedges, electric, invisible or barbed wire fences are not acceptable boundaries for greyhounds.

Please describe the type and height of your fence.

Is your fence attached to the house? Does a door from the house exit out into the fenced area? Are the gates kept locked or can anyone pass in or out of the gates?

CARE OF YOUR GREYHOUND:

How many hours per day will the dog be left at home without you?

What provisions would you make for your dog if you are not at home during the day?

How often will you walk your dog? A greyhound requires two 20 minute walks per day or one 40 minute walk mid day.

Do you agree to keep your greyhound on lead at all times when outside in an unfenced area? In Ireland, this is required by law for all greyhounds.

Do you agree to keep the microchip registration's details up to date?

Do you understand that your greyhound can never be kept confined to the garage, the utility room or a shed?

It may take several weeks to months for a greyhound to fully 'settle in' to its new home. Are you willing and prepared to allow this much time?

Do you realize that it can cost, on average, about €1000 a year for food, accessories and veterinary care for a greyhound?

Do you agree to give your dog regular health care?

Does your vet have experience with greyhounds? Greyhounds can respond differently from other dog breeds to anaesthesia and medications.

Greyhounds can live to be 12 to 14 years old. Do you understand that adopting a dog is a lifetime commitment?

Where exactly in the house will the greyhound spend the day?

Where exactly in the house will the greyhound spend the night?

What arrangements will be made for your greyhound if you are absent from your home for an extended period of time?

What arrangements would be made for your greyhound if you had to move due to change of house or employment or any unforeseen circumstances?

TERMS OF AGREEMENT

Do you agree to return the dog to Flying Irish Greyhounds (FIG), if for any reason you cannot keep it?

Do you agree to contact Flying Irish Greyhounds (FIG) immediately if your dog becomes lost or missing?

Do you agree that Flying Irish Greyhounds (FIG) maintains the right to check on the dog, and resume possession of him/her should it be found the dog is not being properly cared for or not living within the guidelines of this adoption contract?

I hereby certify that the information herein is true and correct.
